

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Contact:
Dennis J. Maggi, CAE
Executive Director
dmaggi@actl.com | 949.752-1801

ATTORNEY ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Michael S. Miller has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in America.

The induction ceremony at which Mr. Miller became a Fellow took place recently before an audience of approximately 800 persons during the recent 2011 Annual Meeting of the College in La Quinta, California.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are approximately 5,800 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus

###

ATTORNEY ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Page 2 of 2

Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. The College strives to improve and elevate the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the trial profession. Qualified lawyers are called to Fellowship in the College from all branches of trial practice. They are carefully selected from among those who customarily represent plaintiffs in civil cases and those who customarily represent defendants, those who prosecute accused of crime and those who defend them. The College is thus able to speak with a balanced voice on important issues affecting the legal profession and the administration of justice.

Mr. Miller is a partner in the firm of Montross Miller Muller Mendelson & Kennedy, LLP and has been practicing in Indianapolis for 36 years. The newly inducted Fellow is an alumnus of the Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis. Mr. Miller is also a lifetime member of the Indianapolis American Inn of Court, serving as a Master of the Bench, the highest category of Inn membership. The Inn's mission is to foster excellence in professionalism, ethics, civility and legal skills. Additionally, Mr. Miller is board-certified in Civil Trial Law by the National Board of Trial Lawyers, a division of the National Board of Legal Specialty Certification. It is the mission of the NBLSC to inform and educate the public concerning legal representation by board certified specialists and to recognize and promote excellence in legal advocacy through a national program certifying specialists predicated on high standards of demonstrated competence and integrity.